Learn The Truth First

DO not decide to buy any automobile merely from advertised claims as to power, equipment, economy, comfort or roominess.

Try before you buy!

Learn by demonstration which car has the most power, flexibility, quietness and ease of handling.

Learn by sitting in it which has the most room, best ventilation, most complete appointments and equipment.

Observe with your own eyes which has the most artistic lines and color, and the best built bodies.

Learn from owners, which car costs least to operate and maintain.

We can afford to urge such careful buying, because people who buy that way buy Stars.

Deputy District Grand Master Fred

The last issue of the Anvil Herald completed its 40th year and with Vol. 41, No. 1, it enters its 41st year. During its almost half century of existence this paper has lost more than one political battle and won some. It never wastes time in vain regrets—but rejoices that there are battles to be fought. He who re-joices most in the thrill and exultation of the fight feels least the sting of defeat. Come on, let's go for our 41st year.

If this editor never made any mistakes except his failure to guess the winner in a political contest he would have little to worry over. But having never been able to own anything but a Ford car his mind thinks in terms of Fords and all cars are liable to be Fords when he tries to tell about them. For instance, we had Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Weynard "Fording" to Amarillo last week when it was a "Star" trip all the way there and back and nothing to take back as to the pleasure and easy traveling. If A. E. Weynard, the Star dealer at Hondo, was as vindictive as some Texas voters what he would do to this editor for repeated sins would make the drubbing they gave Ferguson look like love licks by comparison. But he ain't. He doesn't care how many busts the editor makes so his advertising keeps on selling Stars.

Most people like to read stories.
You will like the Water Bearer, a romance woven around a young water engineer and a typical ranch girl of the semi-arid West. A wholesome clean story with a thrill in every line. It is now running serially in FARMING, and we will send you all the copies containing the installments, including all back numbers, for the small sum of 25¢. Think of it—all the contents of a $1.50 novel and the accompanying contents of a 16-page farm-home magazine for only 25¢.

Send it to-day and begin the pleasure at once of reading this great story.

We call the attention of our readers to the announcement elsewhere of Upton McGary for the office of Justice of the Peace of this, the first precinct. Mr. McGary announces for this place after Judge Lamm decides to voluntarily retire at the end of his present term, and will no doubt be elected without any opposition.

This is the first time he has ever asked for a political office, but he has had a great deal of experience around the various courts which peculiarly fits him for the office to which he aspires.

All the way from Indiana comes to-day a story club subscription to FARMING. Won't our readers of the Anvil Herald—if not ready to add 50¢ to the regular subscription price of the Anvil Herald and get FARMING a whole year—send us a quarter, like this distant Indiana friend, and read Farming during the continuance of our new story—The Water Bearer? The price of a pack of corn or a dozen eggs pays for it.

You write letters occasionally.
Why not use printed stationery? We will furnish you a box of 200 note-sheets and 100 envelopes, all neatly printed with your name and address, for only $1.00. You can't beat it.
Call and let us fix you up, or mail us a dollar bill and we will mail them to you post paid anywhere within the radius of this paper's circulation. Address The Fletcher Davis' Print Shop, Hondo, Texas.

After spending two weeks in Medina County visiting home folks, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Zerr left to-day for their home at Sanderson where Mr. Zerr is section foreman. Mr. and Mrs. Zerr were pleasant callers at this office yesterday. They report the western country in a fine condition.

It will pay you to watch our clubbing rates. We can sometimes make you substantial savings on the subscription price of your papers and magazines and at the same time, by subscribing through this office, you can help us extend the circulation of Farming. In this way we both profit.

Mr. and Mrs. Andreas Sprott were down from Upper Hondo Thursday shopping. Mrs. Sprott was seventy years old July 30th and they plan a big birthday celebration in honor of the event there tomorrow. Mr. Sprott says the crops are very fine all up the Hondo valley, and the people are correspondingly happy.

R. A. Carter visited Houston the middle of the week, taking with him several Hondo boys, and returning Thursday with eight new Fords and two trucks. Mr. Carter thus achieves a double purpose—gives several boys a pleasant outing and saves the freight from Houston to Hondo on his trucks and cars.

HOME BURGLARIZED.

When Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bohl returned home from attending church at LaCoste, they found the house upset by burglars. Mr. Bohl suspected two boys whom he passed on his way to church a short distance from his home and called Sheriff E. L. Etter. They followed the youngsters and overtook them a few miles up the Castroville Road.

Mr. Bohl did not miss anything but a shotgun, which they found on the boys.

A. & M. SHORT COURSE.

By Phebe K. Warner.

Here's something that belongs to the whole State. Every tax payer helps to pay for it. Every man and woman, and every boy and girl is entitled to it. It is one of the best personal investments of a few dollars and a week of time during the entire year. And while the A. & M. Short Course is planned and adjusted especially to the needs of the farmer and his family, there is no better way for hundreds of other people to spend their vacation.

Here are a few of the folks who should make a special effort to attend at least one session of the Farmers Short Course. First of all it is Victory Week for all the prize winners in the boys' and girls' farm clubs as well as all the home demonstration clubs. It takes just one whole year to win your way to the A. & M. Short Course, and there is no finer sight in the State of Texas than those 2,000 prize-winning boys and girls from every corner and almost every county in the State gathered there on their own college campus to put to the final test the best there is in the State in every kind of home and farm work.

"No, it's not much books at that one week of college life. That's why everybody is so happy. The work is practically all done before they go to college. They took their lessons at HOME. They did their work in their own room or their own garden or their own kitchen or their own poultry yard or of their own pasture. The A. & M. Short Course is not intended so much to tie a boy or girl or even their father and mother onto books as it is to link them up for life. The A. & M. Short Course is one happy week of intense living.

Next to the boys and girls, I believe the happiest people of that great school are the mothers. The most of us mothers never had a chance to go to any kind of a college in our youth. Nobody ever found out just how smart we were because our full mental strength was never put to the test. Most of us never won a prize because most of us were never in a contest outside of getting head marks at the little country school. But here is one school where mother may go and tell the world how SHE won the KITCHEN CONTEST.

And next to the boys and girls and their mothers I believe the proudest folks at the A. & M. Short Course are the county farm agents and the county home demonstrators who directed the work of training those boys and girls in their home projects.

The Short Course is more of a human show than a circus. Everything about it is a test of human skill and that's what makes it so interesting. And it's not all athletics either. But it's who is the best judge of hogs in Texas? Who is the best judge of poultry? What Texas girl can make the most beautiful dress? for the least money?

What girl can can the best beans and make the most money off an acre of cotton or most anything else she may choose to do?

But there are others who should go to the Short Course. And there is no other fellow who needs that week off worse than the editors of the home town papers where these prize boys and girls live. Every one of you should pack up your troubles in your old kit bags and lock the shop door and let the people go without their home paper for one week if necessary to attend this wonderful school for just five days, from August 2 to 7. You would get enough new inspiration that one week to make a better paper the other 51 weeks of the year.

You would get a new slant on where a part of the people's taxes go and you would be in better condition to vote right next fall, if you do not vote right July 24th. If agricultural news is not worth putting into the home paper, what is? How many of the people whose business it is to publish a paper for the farmers to read spend a week a year studying or observing the real work and interests of the farmer?

Have you ever checked up on your subscription list to see just where your readers live and what they do and then tried to give your readers a balanced ration in your news column? If you have not it would do you good to attend the Agricultural Writers Conference during the A. & M. Short Course.

Next comes the County Superintendents. What will it mean when the farm agent, the home demonstrators, the fathers and mothers, the boys and girls, the editors and the county superintendents all work together to build up the life of the whole county?

But here is still another man who ought to attend that school for one short week. And that is the rural minister. And it won't hurt a few of the city ministers to go. They would find a lot to preach about at that college. How much more interesting it would be if we could hear a little more preaching on how to live and how to make an honest living than how to DIE.

If missionaries in foreign lands begin to teach the heathen how to become real Christians by teaching them how to raise better corn, why not try it in Texas? If honest work had been made interesting and profitable to all our boys' generation ago we would not have so many criminals to-day.

Another chap who ought to attend the Short Course is the HOME banker. My! My. What a chance he would see to make future depositors for his bank and better citizens for his community. And another fellow who needs to go is the county judge.

It would be a good thing if every woman in the county would say to the candidate for county judge, "Are you going to the Farmers' Short Course this year so you will understand what we mean when we ask for a county home demonstrator?"

If you are not you don't get my vote. We want a county judge who is in sympathy with the women's and children's rights and interests." And last but by no means the end of the list, there should be a law passed in Texas requiring every county Commissioner to attend at least one A. & M. Short Course as one of the essential qualifications for his office.

And if he is not willing to spend a few dollars and sacrifice one week of time to qualify himself for that position then he should not allow himself to be elected to such a responsible position.

TIME TO MAKE PLANS FOR COMMUNITY FAIRS.

Perhaps some of our readers may think it is too early to begin saying much about the community fair, but that is just the reason so many community fairs are not so creditable as they ought to be. Every farmer when he plants his crops ought to have in mind certain fields from which he expects to make the fair exhibits and have already in mind certain cattle, hogs, and poultry on which he will try to win blue ribbons. It makes the whole year's work more interesting to have such things in mind as we go along, and hardly anything else costing so little in time and money will do so much to promote neighborhood progress and pride as the community fair.

If you have no community fair already planned for 1926, why not see your neighbors, your local merchants, bankers, county agents, and vocational teachers, and put a committee to work on the matter right away?—Clarence Poe, in the Progressive Farmer.

BOILS ALL HIS LIFE—ALL ARE NOW GONE.

Alabama Says Dodson's Liver Tone Gave Him Brand New Liver Worth Fortune.

Experience seems to indicate that people store in their systems certain poisons that break out all at once in a series of boils. Sometimes they are fatal.

Willie Hapes says: "Ever since I grew up boils broke out on me just when the planting season began, and I had to lay up. Blood remedies were worthless. The only remedy was calomel, but it seemed to turn my stomach inside out. This spring I got a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone and I feel sure it put a new liver into me worth a fortune, for it cleared off the boils and for the first time in years they didn't come back."

The reason for this is the fact that a spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone loosens up the liver, lets go of a gorg of impurities, sour bile, fermented food and gas and breaks up the most obstinate constipation.
And yet it never makes you sick—no gripes, no pain—even though it may drive out quarts of sour bile as black as ink. And this result is absolutely guaranteed.

Ask your druggist for a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone and take a spoonful tonight. If it doesn't start your liver and straighten you right up better than calomel did in all your life, and without griping or making you sick, go back to the store and get your money.

Suffered weak, nervous

"I WAS in a very weakened, run-down condition, surely in need of a tonic and builder," says Mrs. J. R. Wrenn, of Anna, Texas. "I was so weak I had to go to bed, and kept getting weaker."

"I suffered with my back so much. I was very nervous, couldn't rest good at night. I couldn't eat anything—I just wasn't hungry."

"I had read so much of Cardui, I thought best to use it. I took seven or eight bottles, and by the time I had taken them I was stronger than I had been in several years. I can highly recommend Cardui."

Thousands of other women have found that the tonic effects of the purely vegetable ingredients of Cardui were just what they needed to help restore their appetites, to help bring them easily and naturally back to normal health and strength. Its action has been found to be of great benefit in many common fe-

Let Us Demonstrate The STAR Before You Buy

Warming Against Leaf Worm Is Announced.

TAYLOR, Tex., July 26.—Dr. F. Thomas, chief entomologist of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station at College Station, writes the following instructive letter to the Taylor Chamber of Commerce.
The cotton crop this season has been greatly delayed as a result of injury caused by the cotton flea borer. It is therefore of the utmost importance that the plants be protected from early ravages of the leaf worm. By the last of July and the first of August many of the "millers" will be flying and be expected to appear in all parts of the state. The eggs which layed hatch in a few days and young caterpillars feed at first the lower surface of the leaves. The worms become larger they move their way to the upper portion of the plants and rapidly consume the foliage. Farmers should watch closely for the appearance of worms in the fields and be prepared to apply poison in short notice. Any of arsenical poisons may be used. Arsenic arsenate dust is generally considered the best. This should be used at a rate of from four to six pounds per acre. It is also the remedy for the boll weevil. Arsenate of lead is a slower poison, adheres longer to the foliage. If material is used, five to seven pounds per acre should be applied. Paris green is used it should be mixed with flour to increase the adherence, and with hydrated lime to offset the danger of burning.

The Executive Committee will meet at the courthouse this afternoon and canvass the returns officially and at 2:30 the County Convention will convene to select delegates to the state and various district conventions.
